CATTLE AT LEAST HAVE PASTURES!
"Thousands of Jews from the Corridor and Polish towns, as well as from Czech and Austrian territories, have already been transported like cattle to this reservation."—News item. Photomontage by John Heartfield.

Army Ways
by Hamilton Fyfe

WE think a lot of ourselves. We brag about our "Western civilisation." We take pride in being so much more humane and sensible and "democratic" than any previous age.

So did our ancestors a century ago, yet we look back on them with shame for their savagery in having public executions, for their futile Cynite-like kicking against progress in making Trade Union membership ment could vote on it—after receiving testimonials to the lady's character from two responsible persons.

The pretence that this order has to do with married soldiers getting special allowances, and that, if they married "unsuitably," according to their betters, they would not be entitled to these, does not make sense. It is an attempt to dodge the issue, an official subterfuge.

For in our time all married soldiers get the special allowance for wife and family. The pretence
